

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the Truth & Reconciliation Commission released its final report on June 2, 2015, which included 94 Calls to Action to redress the legacy of residential schools and to provide a framework for all levels of government to repair the painful legacy of our colonial history and to move forward with reconciliation;

AND WHEREAS unmarked graves at residential schools in Manitoba and across the country have raised awareness about the "truth" of residential schools and the need to honour survivors and remember the children who did not make it home;

AND WHEREAS in response to Recommendation #80 of the Truth & Reconciliation Commission, the Federal Government, in collaboration with Indigenous peoples, has proclaimed September 30th to be a Federal statutory holiday, to be recognized as the National Day for Truth & Reconciliation;

AND WHEREAS the City of Dauphin recognizes that public remembrance of the history of residential schools is a vital component of the reconciliation process;

AND WHEREAS the City of Dauphin and its employees will be observing the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation (previously known as Orange Shirt Day) on September 30, 2026, to provide time to reflect on the legacy of the residential school system and its impact on Indigenous communities;

NOW, THEREFORE, WE THE COUNCIL OF
THE CITY OF DAUPHIN
DO HEREBY PROCLAIM

September 21 – 25, 2026

AS

"Truth & Reconciliation Week"

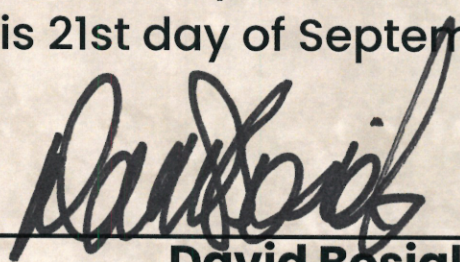

AND

September 30, 2026

AS

"National Day for Truth & Reconciliation"

Dated at the City of Dauphin, in the Province of Manitoba, this 21st day of September 2026.
