PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS National Police Week began in 1970 as a way for the police to connect with their communities and to increase awareness about the services they provide;

AND WHEREAS the theme for this year's campaign is "Committed to Serve Together", which is an opportunity to emphasize how police officers are committed to working together with their agencies, and with other police services, first responders, and social and community organizations, for a stronger, safer, brighter future for all;

AND WHEREAS, this year, we recognize the connection between the police and the citizens they serve and the importance of understanding one another;

AND WHEREAS the City of Dauphin celebrates and commends police officers for serving as valuable public safety partners and for their critical role in contributing to the safety of citizens and communities across the country;

NOW, THEREFORE, WE THE COUNCIL OF
THE CITY OF DAUPHIN
DO HEREBY PROCLAIM

MAY 10-16, 2026

AS

"NATIONAL POLICE WEEK"

Dated at the City of Dauphin, in the Province of Manitoba, this 27th day of April 2026.
