PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS this June 21st, National Indigenous Peoples Day is the 30th anniversary of celebrating the heritage, diverse cultures, and valuable contributions of First Nations, Inuit, and Metis peoples to our country, province, and communities;

AND WHEREAS National Indigenous Peoples Day is also an opportunity to come together to share the experience of Indigenous culture and traditional food, dance, story-telling, and games;

AND WHEREAS collectively we recognize the courage of residential school survivors and their families and grieve the suffering and loss of Indigenous children found near the sites of Canada's residential schools;

AND WHEREAS we believe that "every child matters" and that meaningful steps towards reconciliation – in a spirit of respect, cooperation, and partnership – are more important than ever before;

NOW, THEREFORE, WE THE COUNCIL OF
THE CITY OF DAUPHIN
DO HEREBY PROCLAIM

June 21, 2026

AS

"NATIONAL INDIGENOUS PEOPLES DAY"

Dated at the City of Dauphin, in the Province of Manitoba, this 8th day of June 2026.
